The hole that was started in the Mary Jane by the Roanoke scuttlers on Wednesday, and which Sea-dog Pender thought he had caulked up well enough for a few days of smooth sailing, broke a leak in Broad Street bay yesterday afternoon, and the visiting ship was all but swamped by Shaffer's Colts, the final result being 7 to 4 in favor of Richmond. Just what caused the foundering of the good ship yesterday is hard to say, unless it be that Pender's crew were made to look like land-lubbers by the locals, both in fielding and at bat.

Then it must be remembered that one Mike Cassidy was shoving "em over for Richmond, and one small Hinton was at the receiving end. Both men performed creditably, and the former was decidedly heartless in the ninth, when, with no one down and Dingle in front of the pros, he hit in a relief expedition for the losers in place of Wynne. This same Evans took his time, and after Cassidy had given him three balls, it looked as if a lifeline would be gotten to the shipwrecked crew. Cassidy, however, settled down, and after Evans had found the last ray of hope for the vanquished died out, Seitz fled to Heffron and Buesse drove a long one to Titman, who made a pretty catch and ended the game.

The Features.

The two distinct features of a rather slow game were the catches by Wynne and Hinton in the sixth and eighth, respectively. Cassidy had opened the sixth in a most wonderful and unexpected manner. He gave a safe hit to the company and lost the confidence of the crowd in all pitchers for henceforth by driving out a clean hit past second. Titman then drove a sizzler such as only Titman himself can do, about a foot over Wynne's head. Wynne made a beautiful attempt, and pulled down, but should have been a safe hit with his ungloved hand. It was a pretty stop, and the crowd showed its appreciation by giving him the glad hand. Hinton's star feat occurred in the eighth. Armstrong, who had replaced Cummings in the box for the visitors knocked a nasty fly into the air directly in front of the pros, and Hinton ran for it, and though turned half-way around from the direction in which the ball twisted, caught it. It was not as spectacular as Wynne's catch, but it more than deserved the applause it provoked.

Cassidy pitched a fairly good game, though not up to his usual form, but weakened perceptibly in the sixth and eighth, and was found for a total of seven hits and the four runs as a result. Cummings, who was on the slab for Norfolk, had nothing but the choicest hits for Shaffer's henchmen, and before he gave way to Armstrong, in the seventh of the evening, every man in the team except Hinton had landed on one at least of his alleged foibles. Heffron got three helpings, and Kirkpatrick, O'Neill and Shaffer each two. Wallace took an extra large bite on his track, making it a three-timer, and scoring Titman.

It was the first ball over and he drove it to deep right just inside the foul line. Two double plays were registered by the winners. The first, a clever piece of work from O'Neill to Heffron, and the other from Titman to Reeve after the former had made a difficult catch of a low, mean one off Cummings' bat.

Titman Starts Things.

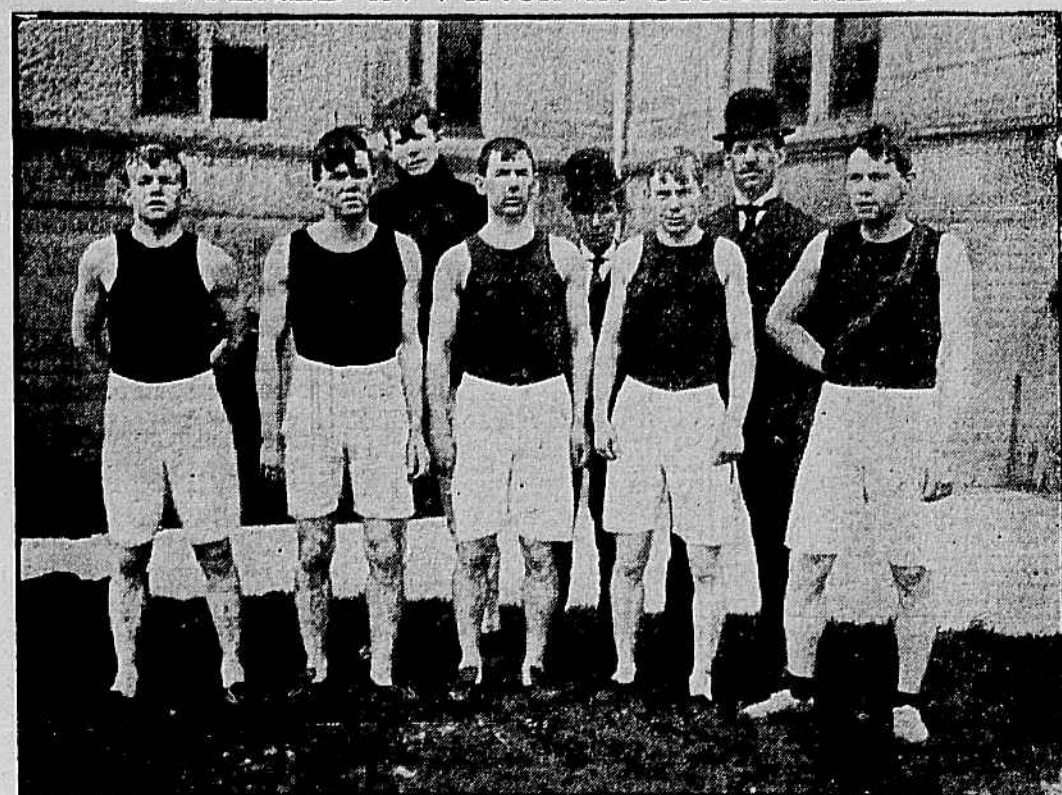

Cassidy started the game by fanning Dingle and Wynne and causing Seitz to balloon to Titman. Titman opened for Richmond with a rattling hit to centre, and was sacrificed to second by Reeve. He stole third and came home on Heffron's scamer over third. Heffron himself counted a minute later on the slashing drive of Wallace for three basehits. Kirkpatrick got a life on Wynne's error, and O'Neill brought Wallace home by nailing one past second. Shaffer fled to left and on Hinton's choice, Kirk was caught at third, Cummings to McMahon.

There was nothing more doing for either side until the fifth, when Richmond put two across after two men were gone. Successive hits by Kirkpatrick, O'Neill and Shaffer were responsible for the three runs. Seitz was pulled off the shoals in the beginning of the next, but after getting one run on four hits and two choices, the good old Mary Jane again caught on a snag, and refused to budge until the eighth, after the Lawmakers had counted twice more in the sixth and seventh, and passed ball and two singles. The way Norfolk's final tallies were registered was this: Seitz was hit, stole second and third and came home on Buesse's hit. Rothelnd filed out and Reeve and Shaffer disposed of Jackson. Pender then singled, bringing home Seitz, and a moment later McMahon evacuated the nocks with his three-bagger. There was no more scoring. The score:

Richmond.

DANVILLE LOSES TO SHOEMAKERS

Tobaccoists Start with Rush, But Fail to Score After the First.

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 25.—Danville hit the dust before the Shoemakers here this afternoon to the tune of 10 to 2, in a game in which the local pros played better ball, but at bat and in the field. The visitors started the game with a rush in the first, but after getting two runs on as many errors, a base on balls, a triple and a single, were never dangerous. Sterzer was relieved in the second because of wildness and lack of work. Oakley had the visitors guessing, excepting in the first inning. The score:

WILLIAM AND MARY.

Team Passed Through Here on Way to North Carolina.

The William and Mary baseball team passed through Richmond last night on its way to Charlottesville, where it is scheduled to play the University of North Carolina to-day and to-morrow. Made considerable batting practice, the players of the Orange and White expect to win one game out of the two, or at least, to make scores in both. Lewis, who held the team down to three hits in his championship game, will pitch one of the games, and Jovines will pitch the other.

TRINITY THE WINNER.

Losers Are Snowed Under an Avalanche of Hits and Runs.

DURHAM, N. C., April 25.—The game between Trinity College and Wake Forest this afternoon resulted in an easy victory for the former by 15 to 4. It was expected to be an interesting contest, and a delegation from Wake Forest attended the game. From the first inning to the ninth it was one-sided, and in one inning Trinity made six runs.

Gay, for Wake Forest, pitched a fairly good game, but was poorly supported. The features for Trinity were the batting of the entire team and the excellent field work of Evans. For Wake Forest, Hamrick scored the stunts in heavy batting.

AMATEUR LEAGUE MEETS.

Captains and Managers Meet in Times-Dispatch Office.

A meeting of the captains and managers of the amateur baseball league was held in the office of the Times-Dispatch yesterday evening to discuss plans for the opening of the league season next Saturday afternoon. A statement from the treasurer of the organization showed it to be in a healthy financial condition.

Beginning next Saturday, there will be three games played every week, the results of which will appear in the Sunday Times-Dispatch with a full account of the games.

TRACK ATHLETICS AT THE COLLEGE

Association Richmond Institution Decides to Recognize This Branch of Sports.

VARSITY LETTERS FOR MEN

Members of Relay and Winners in Competitions with Other Colleges to Be Honored.

The Richmond College track team has met with a great deal of success this year, not only in winning events, but in stirring up enthusiasm for this comparatively new branch of sport. The students have supported the team warmly, and interest has steadily increased. The executive committee has decided to make the track team one of the stars of the college. The Athletic Association, and will award old English "Rs" to winning relay men and to those winning first places in competitive events with other colleges. This is a great incentive, and next year there promises to be even more competition for places on the team.

Good Showing Made.

From the three men who entered the Spiders have succeeded in capturing eight gold, four silver and one bronze medal. In the meet held at the Horse Show Building, January 24th, Richardson won the fifty-yard dash against entries from a great many colleges; time, 5 3-5 seconds. Miller won second in the shot put to Heffernan of Georgetown. The relay race with Georgetown was probably the most interesting event of the meet, and was won by Georgetown by a small margin, after one of the Richmond team had suffered two serious falls in turning the corners. The time was minutes 24 seconds for the mile, the fastest time yet made at the Horse Show Building. Georgetown won from Virginia in Washington, February 22d, and claims the championship of the South, but with the interest now taken in track athletics all over the State, she will find it hard to hold it next year.

On March 16th the team entered the indoor meet held at the Armory Building, in Norfolk. Captain Goch won the 100-yard dash, the fifty-yard dash, in 5 3-5 seconds. Miller defeated his old opponent, Heffernan, of Georgetown, in the shot-put, and won first place by putting the sixteen-pound shot 37 feet 8 inches. The relay team won from William and Mary in a fast race; time, 2 minutes 46 2-5 seconds.

Saturday, April 26th, Richmond College sent four men to compete in the outdoor meet at the University of Virginia. There were a great many colleges represented, and ninety-one athletes entered. The Spiders' four men won third place, with Virginia first and Georgetown second. Miller won the hammer-throw, with Robertson a close second. Goch came second in the shot-put, and was a great many colleges in the quarter-mile. Miller got second in the shot-put.

The men are now in strict training to gain their place at the Fair Grounds, May 4th, in the first meet of the State Track Association.

RACING SCENE SHIFTS TO-DAY

Campaigner Captures Flushing Stakes from Grapple, Odds-On Favorite.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Jockey Martin had his first mount at Aqueduct to-day since his reinstatement. He rode Frank Farrell's grapple, the Flushing Stakes, by a mile, and although Grapple was made a prohibitive odds-on favorite at 1 to 6, Martin failed to land him a winner. Campaigner won by a head. Tomorrow the racing shifts to the Jamaica track, with the Excelsior Handicap as the feature. Stallingham, a second-year colt, won the first of the day, and a half turn—Paul Pry (10 to 1) first, Orena (10 to 1) second, Elvira M. (10 to 1) third. Time, 37 2-5.

Third race—the Glendale Steeplechase, about two and a half miles—Hot Shot (6 to 5) first, Yama Christy (7 to 1) second, Pagan Bay (12 to 1) third. Time, 6:24.

Fourth race—the Flushing Stakes, selling, one mile—Campaner (6 to 1) first, Acapulco (1 to 6) second, Marster (15 to 1) third. Time, 1:40 2-5.

Fifth race—six furlongs—Heaslip (8 to 5) first, Flushing (15 to 1) second, Hyperion II. (7 to 2) third. Time, 1:14 2-5.

Sixth race—four and a half furlongs—Crest (9 to 10) first, Fordello (8 to 1) second, James B. Brady (16 to 5) third. Time, 3:56.

HONORS FOR LONGBOAT.

TORONTO, ONT., April 25.—A civic celebration was held at "Tom" Longboat, the Boston Marathon winner, on Tuesday night. He was met at the station and escorted to the City Hall, where a civic will donate $500 to head a public subscription list for the purpose of sending Longboat to college.

TERMS OF PEACE TREATY.

No More Trouble in Central America for Several Years.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Details of the treaty of peace and amity between Nicaragua and Salvador, which was signed at Amapala, on Tuesday last, were received at the State Department to-day through the cablegram from the American legation at Guatemala. The treaty is similar to that entered in a year ago and known as the "Marblehead pact." It includes a provision for a general Central American Peace Congress to be held in Nicaragua in the near future and a special commercial treaty between Nicaragua and Salvador.

GENERAL MANAGER SHORT AND QUITS

Ninety-Two Thousand Missing from Electric Power Company.

TURNS OVER HIS PROPERTY

Alleged Embezzlement Found and Lincoln, the Manager, Admits Report is True.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., April 25.—A shortage of about $92,000 in the accounts of the Woonsocket Electric Machine and Power Company was revealed to-day by the issuance to the stockholders of the company of a circular letter announcing that the heavy shortage had been discovered. The letter, which was issued by order of the directors, further stated that the resignation of Levi Cook Lincoln, secretary-treasurer and general manager of the company, had been accepted.

John J. Heffernan, counsel for the directors of the company, said:

"I believe the amount of the shortage is about $92,000. Mr. Lincoln has resigned, and has turned over to the company property which he claims is worth $39,000."

After reading the circular letter of the directors and the statement of Mr. Heffernan, Mr. Lincoln said: "I admit the situation is substantially as stated. Further than this I must decline to be interviewed. I take this step upon the request and the advice of our directors and the purchasers."
